Do you know what the city of St. Gallen is famous for? Not only for their beautiful fabrics, the Open Air, the famous «Bratwurst», the beautiful Abbey Library or the Unesco World Cultural Heritage Site. No, there is much more...

114 Praliné Scherrer

There it is, the dreamland full of chocolate and delicious sweets. Once you enter this store, you're simply happy. Here you will find the best chocolates in the city as well as the famous «St. Galler Biber», a good souvenir for your friends and family at home.

118 Chäslaube Kündig

Here you'll get the best cheese with over 300 types from the region and from throughout Europe. Of course, you also get the best cheese for a fondue or raclette here. But be aware: if you ever try the raclette cheese from «Kündig», you'll never want another one.

119 Bäckerei Cappelli

The «Cappelli Gipfel» – each one is rolled up by hand and thus remains particularly airy – makes us just about as proud as our «Bratwurst» and our football club «FCSG». The owner Pietro Cappelli is also famous for his yummy «SG Panettone».

Linsebühlstrasse 80

120 Confiserie Sprüngli

Though a little pricey, the extra tug on your purse strings is worth it because you can experience the taste of the best fresh made macarons (Luxemburgerli). They are available in almost every color and taste. But be forewarned: you can't just eat one of them!

Transportation

St.Gallen is a small and safe city, which is perfect to explore by bicycle. It is great fun to veer off the hustling main roads to find out the hidden beauties inside rural and farming areas. Train and city buses are the main transportation for traveling around. Taxis are also available. There are no subways in St.Gallen. For a reasonable price, you can also rent a car with a navigation system. You need to show your international driver's license and passport to rent a car. You can even take a helicopter tour over the cathedral – depending on your budget (helisitterdorf.ch).

SOUVENIRS & SPECIALITIES

Picture: metzgereigemperli.ch

«St. Galler Bratwurst»

There it is... the popular «St. Galler Bratwurst». This famous veal sausage is the favorite at barbecues and festivals. Only the finest veal, a little bacon and fresh milk may be used as ingredients.

The Swiss prefer their favorite sausage served crisp and brown from the grill, accompanied by a crunchy «Bürli» roll. A lot of butchers sell their «St. Galler Bratwurst» freshly packed or grilled. Every one of them is registered on the website (sg-bratwurst.ch).

We citizens from St. Gallen love to discuss with each other about the butcher with the best «St. Galler Bratwurst». Some stand up for this butcher, some for the other. If you order mustard don't be shocked if you're laughed at – we citizens frown upon anyone with this desire. Here are my favorite three:

- Metzgerei Gemperli, Schmiedgasse 34 metzgereigemperli.ch
- Metzgerei Rietmann, Marktgasse 3 kauffmannag.ch
- Metzgerei Schmid, St. Jakob Strasse 48 metzgereischmid.ch
