

Stay & Sleep

It is all about the location when you are booking an accommodation for a city break or a business trip. However, your ideal hotel should have more than just a great address – it should also offer a taste of the city you are visiting. Where you stay always has a huge influence on your city break.

93 Hotel am Ring

This hotel isn't everyone's taste – but in a good way. The hotel decor is very unique and dining in the restaurant is a great experience – you are surrounded by antique items collected over the years. It's a family run hotel. Raffael and his mum will make you feel very welcome.

94 Hotel Vadian

This hotel has existed for centuries and was originally a merchants', travelers' stop and a place of shelter for the needy. Moreover, the location is fantastic – just across the square from the popular Abbey Library.

95 Youth Hostel

It's a very clean, quiet and peaceful hostel with very helpful staff but also a little bit far from the center. You'll have a really nice view from the terrace and from the dining room you can see the Lake Constance. The rooms and the shared bathroom are clean and tidy.
